

Why parents should join MarvellousMe

MarvellousMe supercharges family conversations about school, which will help your child do better and be happier at school.

It's exciting, simple and free.

What did you learn today?
What's your award for?
Have you got any homework or messages?

Teachers will send you:

- ❖ Activities to tell you what your child is learning.
- ❖ Badges to praise their success.
- ❖ General messages and reminders.

PING!

You will receive an exciting and personal alert on your smartphone or tablet*, telling you when your child has done something marvellous.

* Apple and Android devices. Windows and PC users can use via web browser and get email alerts.

It's ideal for separated and working parents, and you can invite other family members and carers to share in the good news too.

MarvellousMe makes you smile and feel proud. Any time, any where.

MarvellousMe is designed to show your child too.

They will love seeing their learning news and badge collection, and reliving the teacher's lovely comments.

It makes it easy to practise topics together and find worksheets.

How to get MarvellousMe

Your child's teacher or the school office can provide you with your child's unique join letter containing instructions to quickly get you started.

MarvellousMe is free and simple to use.

For help, visit www.marvellousme.com

